DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

Claims 3, 8-9 and 11-12 are cancelled. Claims 1-2, 4-7, 10 and 13 are pending where claim 1 is amended in view of amendment filed 06/01/10.

Status of Previous Rejections

The rejections of claims 1-2, 4-7, 10 and 13 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) have been withdrawn in view of amendments and arguments filed 06/01/10.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4, 6 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Greene et al. (“low-Temperature Wafer-Scale production of ZnO nanowire Arrays”, Angew. Chem. Int. Ed. 2003, 42, 3031-3034).

Regarding claims 1 and 10, Greene et al. teach coating a Si substrate with ZnO nanocrystals (nanoparticles), which is served both as a buffer layer and a seed layer; growing ZnO nanocrystals in a solution consisting of HMTA, zinc nitrate and a solvent at 90 °C (Page 3031, Right Column, lines 3-27) to grow ZnO nanowire (nanorod) arrays.

Regarding claim 4, Greene et al. teach the HMTA in the solution is 0.025 M, and the Zn nitrate hydrate is 0.025 M, which corresponds to a volume ratio of Zn nitrate to HMTA within the claimed range.

Claim 6 is a product by process claim. It is well settled that a product-by-process claim defines a product, and that when the prior art discloses a product substantially the same as that being claimed, the burden falls upon the applicant to show that any process steps associated therewith results in a product materially different from that disclosed in the prior art. See In re Thorpe, (227 USPQ 964), In re Brown, (173 USPQ 685), In re Fessman, (180 USPQ 524) and MPEP 2113. In the instant case, Greene et al. disclose an identical ZnO nanorod array made by an identical method as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Greene et al. ("low-Temperature Wafer-Scale production of ZnO nanowire Arrays", Angew. Chem. Int. Ed. 2003, 42, 3031-3034).

Claim 7 is a product by process claim. It is well settled that a product-by-process claim defines a product, and that when the prior art discloses a product substantially the same as that being claimed, the burden falls upon the applicant to show that any process steps associated therewith results in a product materially different from that disclosed in the prior art. See In re Thorpe, (227 USPQ 964), In re Brown, (173 USPQ 685), In re Fessman, (180 USPQ 524) and MPEP 2113. In the instant case, Greene et al. disclose a substantially identical ZnO nanowire (nanowall) array made as claimed, burden is on applicant to show that the claimed ZnO nanowall array is materially different from Greene et al.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 4, 6-7 and 10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. These claims are rejected based on a newly found reference Greene et al. as applied above.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2, 5 and 13 have rendered moot by allowance of such claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2, 5 and 13 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While using citrate ions to control the growth behavior of ZnO nanostructures are known in the prior art (e.g., Tian et al. "Biomimetic Arrays of Oriented helical ZnO nanorods and Columns", JACS, 2002, 124, 12954-12955), growing ZnO nano structures in a solution consisting of sodium citrate, Zn acetate and a solvent, as claimed, has not been disclosed in any prior art, and has not been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention made. Thus, instant claims are allowable over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
